CORINO

Barolo - Annunziata | Piedmont

Corino makes pretty, supple wines from some of the best sites in La Morra's Annunziata district where the family owns two of the most outstanding crus in the area: Arborina (also shared by Elio Eltare) and Giachini. These vineyards are considered some of the most unique sites in La Morra.

Barolo La Morra e Verduno

The Corino winery is a family affair now run by Giuliano, with the help of his wife Stefania and their children Veronica and Andrea. They are the custodians of 9 hectares of organically-farmed vineyards in the La Morra Zone of Barolo.
